The Healdsburg Tuesday Farmers' Market on the Plaza Opens May 14th!

Our wonderful Tuesday market-on-the plaza starts May 14th and runs through the end of September.

This market is not only an excellent place to find delicious food of types, it is likely one of the most beautiful farmers' markets in the county and beyond. Vendors' booths surround the edge of the plaza, with leafy trees creating shady walkways. The Gazebo Stage is the perfect small-town performance venue. The ambience and the yummy options make this a market to check out this season.

There are twelve farms doing the Tuesday market this year, with an abundance locally grown produce, flowers, dates, jams and much more. Anna's Seafood has the freshest fish, plus picnic-ready salads. There are baked goods from Quail and Condor, as well as Patisserie Angelica, Greek Table and others. Handmade craft, with different artists each week, makes this a great place to buy gifts.

A highlight this year is the addition of some new prepared food vendors. Panchita's is new fresh-Mex vendor, plus our beloved Downtown Bakery will be cooking up their exceptional sandwich fare. Mama Yali's Dim Sum is returning as well, making this market a perfect lunch spot.

The dates are May 14th through September 24th and the hours are 9am to 12:30pm. The market's open rain or shine.
